

Animal Care and Housing Form for Colorado 4-H Animal Projects

It is the responsibility of every 4-H member to ensure that proper care is taken of their animal(s) according to acceptable methods of good animal husbandry, as set forth by Colorado State University Extension and the Colorado Department of Agriculture. A healthy animal requires sufficient food, water, shelter, and appropriate health care. Cruel and inhumane treatment or neglect is prohibited in the Colorado State University Extension 4-H Program. Specific animal husbandry guidelines and humane training methods are provided in the 4-H manuals.

It is necessary for the local county Extension office to know the location of all 4-H animal projects. The Colorado 4-H project recommendation for primary care states that “4-H members will provide primary care and continuous care of the project animals.” Primary care is defined as the 4-H member making the decisions for and/or providing the care, handling, and training of their animal project most of the time. Any primary care exemption must be approved by the county Extension specialist/coordinator. With advanced notification, 4-H members and guardians acknowledge facilities and animal welfare checks may be conducted at any time by Extension specialist/coordinator.

4-H animal project participants are required to complete an animal care form each 4-H year. This document does not imply ownership of animal(s) listed. It denotes your responsibility to care for the listed animal(s). Please check the box for each species you will be participating in this 4-H year. To exhibit at the Colorado State Fair 4-H contests, ownership rules must be followed.
